Ranney: Who Died of Wounds Received in the Battle of Gettysburg Luke xxi, 19. - In your patience possess ye your souls. These are the words of Christ to his disciples, for their comfort and encouragement in times of great calamity. The times referred to were when the temple was to be destroyed, and the Jewish nation dispersed. It was national calamity; when the sword and famine were to desolate the land; when a man's foes shall be they of his household; when contention and fear were to be in every place. Christ having foretold these things, says to his disciples: In your patience possess ye your souls. The foretold events are a necessity, for the Jewish nation had sinned greatly and long against God that had owned them as his people. In the good land he had given them, they had become proud and forgotten the Lord, - forgotten his laws; - had perverted...
