Not illustrated. 1876 Excerpt: .In Bombay the Churney Road girl 3 school continues to receive great benefit from the warm interest taken in it by Mr. S. S. Bengali, to whose liberality, as also to that of Mr. Dhirajlal Mathuradass, it is much indebted. The Deputy Inspector Marathi Schools, Bombay, reports that the Telegu community have began to show considerable interest in the education of their girls. They have employed two female teachers, one of whom was formerly a pupil in the Free General Assembly s Institution, and their school is attended by 70 girls. The examination of the Government girls schools was taken this year under the same Standards as for boys schools, and with, the following results: --Presented. Passed. Vernacular Standard I.) 88 Do. II. 44 Do. III. H32 18 J-164. Do. TV. I 11 Do. V.j 3 Separate and easier standards for girls schools have been sanctioned from the commencement of the current year. On the whole, I think we may say that the subject of female education is exciting more attention, that some little progress has been made, and that the interest in it is becoming more real. In the North-east Division the number of girls schools has risen from 8 to 9--a new Hindustani School having been opened at Ranalla in Khandesh. Of the other 4 schools in Khandesh two are in an infant state, and two are said to be efficient, one at Dhulia teaching three standards, and one at Parola four. The...
