Excerpt: .of Mr. Elphinstone s life were spent in literary retirement. On the 20th of November, and in the 81st year of his age, the useful, blameless, and happy life of this eminent man was brought to a close by a stroke of apoplexy. By the decease of William Eichard Hamilton, England has lost one of her best public servants, and a stedfast promoter of letters, art, and science; while this Society recognises in him one of its earliest adherents, long one of the Council, and who, after filling the offices of President and Vice-President, only retired from our Trusteeship a year before his death. Born in 1777, Mr. Hamilton was educated at Harrow School and at the University of Cambridge, where he acquired that thorough classical knowledge which enabled him soon afterwards to prove of signal service to his country. He began life in the...
