My time during the past year has been given mainly to the inspection of schools of all kinds in various sections of the Commonwealth, to attendance upon teachers institutes and other educational meetings, and to an inspection of the county truant schools and of the special schools for defectives and delinquents supported partly or wholly by the State. Educational Conditions. Slate Aid. - In my last report I spoke at some length(1) of the great improvement which had been made in the smaller towns of the Commonwealth on account of skilled supervision, made universal and obligatory by law, and(2) of the improved character of the teaching force, made possible to many towns by increased aid from the State. I also spoke of the unequal and in some respects unfair distribution of the State school fund, showing that while a few towns were receiving more money from the...
