CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 214 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. An historical cavalcade of red hot erotica set in the ever-changing streets of Londons East End. Michelle Carter, a young professional in her first ever London apartment, discovers that she and her roommate, Janet, are not alone. The past, too, inhabits the rooms, a sensual, tactile past that reaches back over 200 years, to draw the two women into the succession of sexual encounters that must be relived before they can be understood. Set exclusively on Londons Isle of Dogs, a tiny patch of land that has seen countless changes over the centuries, Below Blue London is a seamless combination of explicit erotic detail and expert historical documentation. Sweeping from Yuppie brokers to Victorian dockers, from the desperation of poverty to the complacency of wealth, from the horror of the London Blitz to the luxury of the Royal Court, Below Blue London is an historical epic like no other This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
