Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Marie-Xaviere Volpe-or X, as her friends call her (because her name has too many syllables and because she loves The X-Files)-is a bit of a free spirit, whose top 10 rules for living include a melange of spiritual beliefs and a basic distrust of authority. Behind her petite, exotic exterior, X is a liberal-minded, New Age-style philosophy major at the University of Colorado and an outspoken feminist intellectual, who sets tongues wagging at the LDS student ward in Boulder. Some people say she dresses like a belly-dancer or looks like she is on her way to bathe in the sacred stream in Lourdes. (She wears Druidic cloaks, excessive amounts of earrings, and crosses around her neck, which she chooses in various gem stones, believing in the mystic powers associated with amethyst, peridot, or amber). Others disapprove of X's habit of prefacing her weekly gospel doctrine lesson with a vignette about a martyred Catholic saint or a quote from one of her favorite French existentialist writers. X respects the law of chastity not so much because of her belief in its merit as because of her determination not to let the all-male stake cabal have any reason to disparage or disempower her. Shortly after a falling out with her non-LDS boyfriend Brannigan Foster, a fellow philosophy major and wealthy, worldly Californian, X meets Luc Gauthiers, a handsome, vegetarian environmentalist and sci-fi fan fresh from his mission in France and Switzerland. Just as her relationship with Luc seems like kismet, X finds herself at a seminar in Martinique with Brannigan, as Luc, his brash roommate Garth, X's best friend Cynthia, and X's family back home in the...
